VOL. XXIV.-NO. 15.

BOLIVAR, TENNESSEE, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1888.

wrecked.

- SUBSCRIPTION: $1.00 Per Year.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Compiled from Various Sources

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL STOUX RESERVATION Indians are unxious to form the acquaintance of General Harrison. They realize that he will soon become the "Great Father," and they demire to meet him and present their claims regarding the proposed opening of their reservation. PROF. JOHN M. LANGSTON is quoted as saying that not only is he elected to Congress from the Petersburg (Vn.) district, but that the lawful majority in the district will give the electoral vote of the State to

Harrison and Morton. PRESIDENT CLEVELAND retired to the privacy of Oak View, on the 20th, with has completed his annual message to Congress. He will devo e his time exclusively to the task before him. Tax Berlin Freising a seris that the prosecutor of the L beral newspapers is Emperor William bimself, and that the fact is equivalent to an acknowledgment on his part of the authenticity of his father's diary as published.

OFFICIAL returns from every county in the State of Pennsylvania show Harrison's plurality to be 70.571, and his ma-On the 20th the twelfth church congress (Episcopal) opened in Trinity Church, Buffalo, N. Y., Bishop Coxe presiding. ALFRED H. COLQUITT has been re-elected United States Seaster from Georgia, receiving every vote cast in the Senate and House except (wit.

Ir is announced that General Panker will succeed Admiral Passirt as Russian Minister of Railways.

Is compliance with the request of the citizens' inaugural committee, Postmaster-General Dickinson has decided to defer the removal of the Washington Pension building, in order that the inaugural ball may be held there, as it was ance of the position of private secretary to President-slee; Hurrison was made Home at Hampton, Va., named Simon public. Mr. Hulford is managing editor of the Indianapolis Journal, and an old and confidential friend of General Har-

THE suit of R. W. Milbank, of New York, against ex-Congressman Jones, to re-Jones for his influence in getting a franchise through the Buard of Aldermen, has been decided in favor of the defend-

GOVERNOR-ELECT HOVEY of Indiana is Hoosiers upon his return to Washington. A CIRCULAR was Issued by Cardinal Gibbons, on the 21st, to the Catholic ing a general observance of the President's Thanksgiving proclamation.

THE funeral of the late Dr. Henry P.

Sands, of New York City, occurred on the 21st. Three hundred students of the College of Physicians and Surgeons attended the services. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The remains were interest in Woodlawn Cemetery. On the 21st the Anti-Saloon Republican National committee met in New York City, and discussed plans for further

PRESIDENG JUDGE HANNEN of the Parnell Commission, on the 21st, fined Mr. Edward Harrington £300 for contempt of court in publications reflecting upon the

On the 22d the annual report of United States Treasurer Hyatt was made public. Major Lyman Bissell, U. S. A., died, on the 224, at his home in New Haven,

On the evening of the 21st Mr. James Russell Lowell was entertained at a banquet by the Philomathic Society or Liverpool, and sailed for America on the 22d. On the 20th Walter E. Schudder, of New Jersey, a clerk to the Government Printing Office, accidentally shot and killed himself while drawing a cartridge

GENERAL BLACK, the Commissioner of Pensions, is spoken of in connection with the superintendency of the National Soldiers' Home at Dayton, O.

THERE was a rumor in Boulangist circles in Paris, on the 22d, that the government intends to expel Boutanger on a charge of conspiring to overshrow the ex-

J. S. Dickenson, a popular lawyer of torial positions in Indianapolis and St. Paul, died of pneumonis, on the 22d, aged forty-one. He studied law in General Harrison's office, where he was a steneg -

AT a citizens' meeting in Boston, on pendent candidate for mayor in nomina-On the 22d the State Bank of Valparaiso,

Neb., closed its doors, and the proprietors, F. Scoville and G. A. Crafts, have fied the country, leaving many debts un-

The Paris Intransigeant states that Baron Selliere has been placed in Dr. Sauray's private asylum for the insane situated in Paris.

contest in the Seventh Congressional part of Idaho Territory. district in favor of Elliott, Democrat, observed at Windsor, England, on the will be idle in consequence.

21st. She received scores of congratulations, and many German officials called bearing presents.

means of letter-boxes placed on the street | batter out on three strikes. Ex-Congressman Perry Belmont took the oath of office and received his credentials as Minister to Spain, on the 23d. On the 23.1 Chief Wm. Printup. Grand and Henry S. Ives, was granted by the arrested it Nashville, Tenn., on the 23d for Sachem of the Tuscarora Indians, died Supreme Court of Ohio, on the 20th. This doing up ageral business houses by obtainon the reservation, in New York. He was will take the case before the higher courts ing goods from them under false pretenses. an able and intelligent man.

THE Associated Press statement that | The Detroits have decided to leave the Silas Gearnoy, of the Tremont House, Rational Base-Ball League, and their manufactures from S1,545 pounds of to-Boston, Mass., was insolvent is incorrect. | place will be taken by the Cleveland club. | bacco in Ten essee. About 2,204,000 pounds He is not connected with the Tremont

DAVID HAMILTON, a real estate dealer, and owner of a number of business railways in Venezuela, atructures at Websah, Ind., failed, on C. W. Olliffe, a me the 28d, with liabilities amounting to $30,- York Stock Exchange since 1868, died on Plummersvelle and Coblenz, Ark. This is sewage problem was discussed. It was made by him concerning the annexation captain reports a stormy and rough 707. Stor. Francisco and took command of the Distuation, so far as rates were concerned, fever reported at Jacksonville, Fla., on the our towns interested to meet in this con- nights ago, by a train which he was flagvision of the Pacific. General Howard up to the 20th, and no meeting of trunk- 24th. Total cases, 4,674; total decths, 407. vention.

left San Francisco the same night for line officials had yet been called. PRESIDENT HANNEN of the Parnell Com- ment has informed a number of Buldition, and certain to be in his seat on the gram, and on flour to eighteen reis akilotice that only American citizens, native a monster petition against the enforce- 52,085. The total vote is 11,932 less than off. The cave-in was caused by the or naturalized, will hereafter be employed ment of the law regarding the slave four years ago. The Democratic majority | working of the pillars of coal left standon his Beneathyn street-car times as con- traffic, which they assert has been in is 4500 greater. ductors and drivers. practical abeyance for many years.

On the 23d Mr. Powderly was re-elected | William's visit to Vienna. dianapolis.

BISHOP FOLKY, the new Bishop of Deroit, was received in that city, on the 23d, by a reception committee and a proession of ten thousand persons.

J. W. Mackintosh & Co., Beston stockbrokers, have suspended.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES. MARHEW BAKER, a well-to-do farmer esiding between Venice and New Baltimore, Hamilton County, O., hanged himself, on the 22d, in his barn. A CLERK in the City National Bank of Springfield, Mass., detected in a plot o rob the bank of $30,000, upon making a written confession, was, on the 22d, discharged. He made a confidante of a man whom he supposed to be a crook, but who turned out to be a detective.

Duning their mother's absence, seeking aid of a charitable society, two children of Yetta Greenberg, of New York City, eight degrees below zero at Montreal, were burned to death, on the 22d. She Can. the determination, it was said, not to re- had been deserted by her husband, and turn to the White House until after he found it impossible to provide for her three little ones.

> H. H. Scott, ex-village president and the 19th. NEAR the month of the Little Chop-two hours and resulting in one fatal casualty, occured on the 22d, between the man-of-war Governor Thomas and fourwas driven off.

CHARLES TINKLER, the nineteen-year-Citizens', Merchants' and First National | next autumn. banks of Cincinnati out of $5,000 each, a Matilda Meier, the young girl who left several times, attended the elections for Cincinnati with him.

mined down the damper in the stovesipe, and, gas escaping into the room, both were asphyxiated. The woman is city post-office to the great hall of the dead, but the man may possibly recover. On the 221 Emil Isoldriver, of Buffalo, and Augustus Smith, of Binghampton, N. Y., were killed by a train on the On the list Edjah W. Halford's accept- Lackawanna road at Wilkesbarre, Pa. An inmate of the National Soldiers'

> 22d, by cutting an artery and bleeding to $3,000 in the vault. ic among the children, but was extin- pendium of the census. guished with slight loss, an none of the children were injured.

Bedell, the forger, lost $125,00), pleaded offense would result in dismissal, clergy, secular and regular, recommend- guilty to felony, and was fined $1,000. On the 25d, fire in the Croscent Avenue pressed for sale in London, on rumors Presbyterian Church of Plainfield, N. J., that a branch is to be built to Detroit, caused a loss of $8,000; fully insured. Chesapeake Bay, was destroyed by fire. On the 23d Albert Shultz, at Altoona, Pa., fired a gun, which he thought was not loaded, and killed his eight-monthsold brother.

> NEAR Trales, County Kerry, an Irish farmer, recently returned from America, took a farm from which a former tenant had been swicted. On the 23d his dead body was found, pierced with four bui-

> ENGINEER WHITTAKER'S legs were crushed in a railroad collision at Hammondsville, O., on the 23 L. HENRY JONES, of Petersburg, Va., was ozen to death on the night of the 22d. He went nome at a late hour lutoxicated, found in the morning by some of his ministers at Madrid. neighbors, frozen stiff. ADAM BERKES, who was whipped, re-MRS. MARY DORAN, of Columbus, Ind., who murdered ther busband by pouring earbolic seid into his mouth while asleep, was, on the 27d, acquitted by a jury on the ground of fusanity. Fine destroyed the extensive works of the Ft. Wayne (Ind.) Jenney Electric Light Company on the 23 L Loss, $303,000; insurance, $.58,030. Three hundred employes are temporarily thrown out of the sugar-production of the next cane

AFTER reaching an altitude of half a Helens, Mont, who formerly held edi- mile the ballonn in which Prof. Vandegrift made an assension from the Exposition Park, at Columbas, Ga., on the 22d, suddealy burst and the reronant, descending by a parachute, alighted in the Chattaochie river, and was drowned.

On the 23d Recorder Smythe of New years and four months

MISCELLANEOUS. A NUMBER of cases of typhoid fever were reported at the Soldiers' Orphans' at McAlisterville, Pa., on the 19th. Emmry decidons were, rendered bothe Secretary of the laterior, on the 20th, allowing applications to enter lange within the indemnity limits of the North-THE South Carolina State Board of ern Pacific railroad in the eastern part resigned. Canvassers has decided the Eillott-Miller of Washington Territory and the western

Ar a meeting of coal operators and making the delegation from South Caro-lina solilly Damocratic. The vote of the was unanimously resolved to stop runshippers in Pittsburgh, Pa., on 19th, it district was: Eiliot. 8,358; Miller, 7,003. ning coal for an indefinite period, begin-Miller will carry his contest to Congress. | ning December L. This action is caused

League and American Association have than the of Pennsylvania. The coal area adopted the proposition to give the striker | is 11,00 THE postmaster of Baltimore has a his base on four balls, instead of five, as rulings of Judge Shroeder of the Com- in operation only a few days. acquit in the case of George H. Stayner who halls from Columbus, Ga., was for roview. a syndicate for the purpose of building were paid a sounting to $98,664.40.

age, but without accident of any kind. On the 231 General Miles arrived at San | Tunns was no change in the trunk-line It is stated that the Russian Govern-mission says that he will stimit the re- gariau refugees that Russia renounces perts made by the police for what they all interest in Bulgaria, and that this decision dates from the time of Emperor general master workman of the Knights THE Department of State has been inary at Marion, Aia., on the 24th. It was ried with it the main pipe of the Wilkes- Mis of Labor for the years at In- officially informed that the Portugueso one of the oldest and best known institu- barre Water Company, which conveyed ter.

Government has, by ministerial decree, tions in the South. The loss is $100,000; water from the reservoir to this city. As intimate friend of Samuel J. Rans further reduced the duty on wheat im- insurance, $25,000. dall describes him as in very good con- ported into Portugal to ten rets a kilo "Deagon" Richards on has given no. Zangibar slave owners have united in Harrison 13,740. Democratic impority

THE recent failure of the firm of Feader & Owsanikoff, in St. Petersbug, has caused the failure of two firms at Moscow and six at Odessa.

THE finest street pageant ever witnessed in Charleston, S. C., was the trades display, on the night of the 21st, given as a feature of the gala week.
On the 20th All-Saints Episcopal Cathedral, at Albany, N. Y., was dedicated, with imposing ceremonies. Bishop Potter of New York preached the sermon.

Subscriptions to the inaugural guaranee fund reached $25,000 on the 20th. On the 23d the Woman Suffrage Association convention at Cincinnati adjourned. In order to meet expenses it is proposed to fix the price of tickets to the inaugural ball at ten dollars-double the amount heretofore prevailing. On the 21st the thermometer registered

A GERMAN gendarme, it is reported, arrested a French employe of the Aviourt railway station while working in During a violent quarrel, on the 22d, his own garden on German territory, on

county surveyor of Hinckley, Minn., shot | DESPITE the complaints of Switzerland and killed Sidney K. Cruin, an engineer | the German Government has discontinued at the Eastern Minnesota railway water the customs office at Lucelle, between Alsace and Jura Bernoise, intending to establish forts there should France entank river, Maryland, a battle, lasting deavor to penetrate Alsace from that

It is reported that the whole plan of the blockade of Zanzibar has been teen oyster-dreigers. The man-of-war changed so as to include the entire coast. THE opinion is prevalent in Germany that it will be necessary to hold another old forger, who successfully fleeced the election for members of the Reichstag

GREAT excitement and much rioting, few weeks since, has been arrowed in particularly in Belgrade, where the peoondon, England, in company with | ple came in collision with the soldiery members of the Servian Skuptschine, on SEFORE retiring, on the 21st, Fred Dost the 21st. Many persons were injured, and his wife, Amelia, of Cleveland, O., some of them seriously.

ABOUT half the land owned by the late Joshua Jones, west of Central Park, New York City, has been sold at auction by the executor of the estate, and realized | sand people witnessed a balloon ascenabout two million dollars. The property sion at the Exposition park yesterday was bought by Mr. Jones' father, in 1808, afternoon. Prof. F. H. Vandegrift made for less than three thousand dollars. 22d, and was placed in the hands of a re- burst and began to descend to the ground ceiver. The capital was $25,000. There rapidly, to the horror of the spectators. Dinningham, committed suicide, on the is said to be $90,000 on deposit, with only Vandegrift cut the rope that held the

and City, N. Y., on the 22d, caused a pan- addition there are two volumes of com- hoochie river, and Vandegrift was drowned H. H. Scorr killed Sidney K. Irvin at cent street-railway strike in Brooklyn. Virginia and had been in the balloon First at Duluth, Minn., on the 23d, de- to remove obstructions from car tracks | first leap with a parachute at Greenville, to be tendered a reception by resident stroyed property to the value of $25,000. during the recent street-car riot were O., three months ago. The body was re-On the 28d Philip J. Goss, the New York | fined ten days' pay each and also covered last night, completely enmeshed policy dealer, in whose place James E. | cautioned that a repetition of such an | in the ropes of the balloon. It will be

> On the night of the 21d nearly all the Tun Journal de St. Petersbourg denies business section of Pocomoke City, Md., that a secret treaty has been entered into a village is the southern part of Wor- with Corea, but admits that Corea has cester County, on the eastern shore of granted to Russia facilities for trade across the frontier.

On the 23d, by a cave-in near Wilkesbarre, Pa., the water supply of the city was suddenly cut off, and a large mine barely escaped with their lives.

THE Gate City Guards of Atlanta, Ga., have sent a bale of new cotton to the THE project for the consolidation of the and laid down on the porch, where he was lons entertained on the subject by the During the month of October 40,865 imcently, at Sardinia, O., by White Caps, 44,166 in October, 1887. Germany furhas lost his reason, and is now a maniac. nished the greatest number, 10,166; En- hundred employes are temporarily gland and Wales, 7,477; Ireland, 5,530; Sweden and Norway, 4,250; Italy, 2,785, and Scotland, 2.094. Ir is reported that the Woolen Goods Association of New York will petition Congress to class worsted importations with woolen cloth. IMPROVED machinery is being imported into Cuba, with the object of increasing Duning October exports of merchandise aggregated in value $74,714,495, against $76,033,439 in October, 1887. Imports for the month were valued at $66,231,653, ngainst $60,963,257 in October, 1887.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Oil was again struck on the 26th in the the 223, it was decided to put an inde-pendent candidate for mayor in nomina-forger, to State prison by twenty-five gas well which is being put down eighteen miles west of Chattanooga in the Se-on the 26th decided that children of slave parents, although not born in wedlock, are entitled to inherit property of parents. JOSTAH A. DUGGER, JR., has been ap- of the customary ture of 6 per cent. on cotton pointed postmaster of Stiverville, Maury county, Tenn., vice Isaac W. Lovell saving to the cotton planter this large amount.

FROST fell in all portions of Florida on the night of the 25th. BISHOP MCTYERE, of the Methodist Church South is critically ill at his home in Nashvalle, Tenn.

The birthday anniversary of ex-Em- by the heavy stocks of coal at Southern is reported to be large enough to allow of Worcester County on the eastern shore of press Frederick of Germany was quietly river points. From 4,000 to 5,000 miners from 26 2500 carloads being shipped East. THE joint committee of the National | THE San ore of Alabama is greater

Osquare miles. The postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of Ballimore has a like base of the postmaster of the like base of the postmaster of the like base of the like base of the postmaster of the like base of mon Pleas Court, in directing the jury to Ground tempert, with several aliases,

> DURING the year 3,875,525 eigars were goods lying around in disorder. THE North German Bank, the Disconto of tobacco was manufactured in the State, Gerellschaft and the Krupus have formed | and 1,245,870 pounds sold, for which taxes GOVERNMENT officials are just now wor-

> > THERE were nine new cases of yellow

THREE white and one negro confict were whipped at New Castle, Del., or the 24th for largery and burglaries. They took acres of earth over Mineral Spring from five to fifty lashes, lightly last. About Comery, at Miner's Mills, caved in late 250 speciators were present. Fine destroyed the Judson Female Sem- age. When the earth went down, it car-

South Caralina are: Cleveland 65,825,

THE BEEF MEN. Organization of the National Beef Pro-

lucers' and Butchers' Association at St. since, burned the Hopkins & Robinson Louis-List of Officers Chosen and Joint Company's building. Loss, $40,000; in-Conference Committee. St. Louis, Nov. 23 .- The nucleus of a new organization was formed yesterday by the joint conference committee of the chers' National Protective Association and the International Range Association. The new association is to be called the National Beef-Producers' and Butchers' Association, and is to be officered as follows: President, C. C. Slaughter, of Texas; vice-president, Thomas Armour, of Chicago; second vice-president, L H. Higston, of Pennsylvania; secretary, H. Taylor, of Denver; treasurer, J. H. Reynolds, of Las Vegas. The executive mittee consists of the fourteen members of the joint conference committee, as follows: International Range—C. C. Slaughter, Dallas, chairman; Brewster Cameron, Tucson, Ariz.; H. M. Taylor, Denver; Chas. Davis, El Paso; J. C. Beatty, El Paso; Jefferson Reynolds, Las Vegas; Harvey W. Salmon, Clinton, Mo.

Butchers' National Protective Association-Thomas Armour, St. Louis, chairman; J. O'Neill, New York; L. Rothschild, Pittsburgh; H. Morelock, St. Joseph; Geo. Beck, Detroit; S. F. Hinkson, hiladelphia; John Ruegamer, Dubuque. All cattle raisers, cattle feeders and butchers who will agree to work for the re-establishment of competitive cattle for a year's membership can become members. It is claimed that 260 butchers commission merchants, and will employ counsel to secure State legislation.

AN AERONAUT'S FATE.

A Perilous Descent and a Watery Grave the Result of Prof. Vandegrift's Balloon Ascension at Columbus, Ga. COLUMBUS, Ga., Nov. 23 .- Twelve thonthe ascent. When the balloon had reach-Tue Osceola (In.) Bank closed on the ed an altitude of half a mile it suddenly parachute, and for a time it seemed THE last (twenty-second) volume of the that he would escape death. The para-Fine in a school building at Long Isi- Tenth census report has been issued. In chute fell near the center of the Chattain spite of the efforts of two men in a boat On the 221 the New York State Board to save him. The unfortunate man was of Arbitration met to investigate the re- twenty-five years old. He was born in embalmed and sent to Vandegrift's parents Ox the 23 Canadian Pacific shares were at Clinton, Mo.

A COSTLY FIRE.

Destruction of the Jenney Electric Light Company's Works at Fort Wayne, Ind., by Fire-Loss Nearly Half a Million Dol-

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Nov. 23 .- The extensive works of the Fort Wayne Jenney Electric Light Company took fire at two o'clock this morning and were totally destroyed. The building, containing the The vein is said to be about three feet the new three-story building, containing Indian Agent John Blain states that the slock room, the incandescent departthe Chippewas are slowly becoming ex- ment and the Star Iron Tower Company, are a total loss. All of the tools and the patterns and some of the books of the ompany are also destroyed. The company Governor's Foot Guard of Hartford, is the most prominent of the arc light Conn., for the benefit of their armory manufacturers in America, and has in the past three years embarked in the business of manufacturing incandescent lights, Cuban debt, it is believed, will prove a installing plants all over the United fallure, on account of the different opinof capital invested is fully half a million. The loss on buildings, stock and machinery amounts to over $300,000, and the inmigrants came to this country, against surance is $148,000 and is divided among nearly forty different companies. Three thrown out of employment. The stock is mostly held by local capitalists, who will probably rebuild at once. The origin of the fire is not known. THE NATIONAL GRANGE.

Resolutions of Inquiry as to Nations Im porting Agricultural Products Adopted at Topeka. TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 23 .- The National Grange closed its annual meeting yesterday. Before adjourning the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That the Commissioner of Agricult ure be requested to inquire through the conwhat foreign nations are now importing agriultural products, and ascertain what possibilities there would be to establish trade re-lations for the disposal of our surplus agricultural products; also to inquire what agricultural products are now imported that our country and climate would be capable of pro ducing and lay the same before Congress and THE District of Columbia Supreme Court publish for the information of farmers. the National Grange confer with the cotton exchanges of the United States and foreign markets, with a view to securing a reduction to the actual tare, which is 4 per cent., thus FIRE-SWEPT.

Pocomoke City, Maryland, Severely Visited by Fire-Nearly All the Business Portion Swept Away.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 23 .- Nearly all the business section of Pocomoke City, THE organge crop of Southern California Md., a village in the southern part of LEAVE to file a bill of exceptions to the W. Garrat, burned on the 23d. It had been stores remain. The town was not provided with fire apparatus and help was requested from other towns. The New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk railway people sent a train from St. Charles with fifty men to fight the flames. On the outskirts of the town the sight is one of great confusion, innumerable loads of JOLIET, Ill., Nov. 23 .- The Ship Canas and Drainage Association, Mayor Roche in charge, arrived in Jollet yesterday. The leading city officials and citizens were at once summoned and met the C. W. Olliffe, a member of the New rying over robbery of the mail between commission in the Hotel Royal, when the GENERAL HARRISON deuies the truth of mails have been robbed finally decided to hold a convention in the 20th.

The steamer Transe arrived at New five times within ten days, and the amount secured allogether will aggregate about from different points along the line will form for was discussed. It was finally decided to hold a convention in Chicago December 4, at which delegations the was value from different points along the line will form for was drowned.

The steamer Maud 5 Sould's landing, twenty Drieans. He was value from different points along the line will form for was drowned.

The steamer Transe arrived at New five times within ten days, and the amount from different points along the line will form for was drowned.

The steamer Transe arrived at New finally decided to hold a convention in Chicago December 4, at which delegations from different points along the line was value. be present. The commission then pro- W. A. Taylor, station agent at Galloceeded on its way to Peoria and other way, Tenn., on the Louisville & Nash.

The Earth Went Down.

vesterday afternoon, causing great dam-The miners had a narrow escape from drowning, but all were gotten out safely. The city's water supply is entirely cut buggy. ing in the mine as supports to the earth

TALMAGE'S SERMON. Fire at Louisville, Ky., a few days Not Alone the Brilliant Who Shall

Receive Reward, In a row at New Roads, La., recently, Van Matthews and J. B. Woodruff killed Wm. R. Shine, a Baltimore drummer,

shot himself through the head at the St. James Hotel, Richmond, Va., a few days ago. No cause is known. The millstone in Cunningham & Galloway's grist mill, at Galloway's Station, Tenn., burst, a few evenings since, in-

The Governor of South Carolina has commuted to thirty years' imprisonment the death sentence of Charles Dupre, the child murderer, who was to have been hanged on the 23d inst. The criminal is a negro boy, just nine years old. The warehouse and offices of W. H. Edinger & Bro., wholesale flour dealers, at Louisville, Ky., were burned a few nights ago. Nearly 5,000 barrels of flour were destroyed. Loss on building and stocks. $40,000; insurance about $35,000. J. J. Barrey, of Vicksburg, Miss., re-cently sank a gas well at Lake Providence, La. The pressure is good, and the gas burns brilliantly. It is believed the gas field is extensive. The cotton crop in West Tennessee is markets and subscribe five dollars each | yielding much better than was expected a month ago. The staple is larger and better than has been known for years. will join the association in a body at | The streets of Jackson are crowded with cotton bales from morning until night. The association will employ its own The outlook for a big holiday trade was never better. The yellow-fever scourge has entirely abated at Decatur, Ala. John Peterson, wanted in Ashville, N. , for murder, has been captured in Blont County, Tenn.

SOUTHERN GLEANINGS,

An unsuccessful attempt was made, a few nights ago, to burn the building occupied by the Birmingham (Ala.) Age-Ben Harrison, a colored man of Hopkinsville, Ky., had a fit while driving a called together his servants, and said: wagon, a few days since, and, falling to the ground, broke his neck, dying in-John White, a young farmer living near Hopkinsville, Ky., fell from a loaded his back, and received other serious injuries that rendered his recovery doubt-

Dr. J. L. Walker, a well-known and ec-suddenly a few days since. He recently had a stroke of paralysis, and never rallied. He was a bachelor. The Garfield Club, of Knoxville, Tenu. composed entirely of white citizens, have made arrangements to attend the inauguration of President Harrison in a body. Two hundred members will go, each wearing a silk hat and overcoat of the

The house of Jack Gregg at Leesville, Ky., was burned a few nights ago, and all the family, consisting of five persons, perished, except Gregg, who was away from the house on business. While boring for gas in Livingston County, Ky., twelve miles from Paducah, recently, a vein of silver ore was struck at a depth of about eight hundred feet. was submerged, from which the miners costly machinery and the engines, and thick, and considerable excitement prevails over the find. Henry James, colored, and his wife went to a church supper at Livingstone, Ala., a few nights ago, leaving their three children locked up in the house. Upon their return they found the house in ashes, and the children burned to a crisp. John Peterson, wanted for murder at Asheville, N. C., was arrested in the mountains of Blount County, Tenn., a few days ago, by Deputy Sheriff Blankenship. Peterson killed a man named > most horrible ever known in Western North Carolina. F. H. Varnado, a prominent merchant of Tsyka, Miss., was shot down and instantly killed, a few nights ago. There were no witnesses to the killing, and the assassin is unknown. O. F. Adams, city treasurer of Macon. Ga., is reported as being about $20,000 short in his accounts, and has been suspended from office. He can give no satisfactory explanation. Demands have been made on his bondsmen. Some new coal discoveries that have been made near Fordsville, Ky., on the line of the Owensboro & Falls of Rough railroad, hold out better promises than any of the veins yet known in that region. Jas. Philbeck, a farmer living in Cleveand County, N. C., was called to the door of his house a few nights ago and shot dead by an unknown party, who then en-tered the premises, shot Philbeck's wife and robbed the house. The murderer

Gooch last July, the murder being the

Robert H. Hailey, of Jackson, Tenn., rakeman on the Mobile & Ohio railroad, fell under the wheels while coupling cars at Guntown, Miss., a few nights ago. The cars passed over his left hand, mangling it in a fearful manner. The unfortunate man was taken to Jackson, where four of his fingers were amputated. Jack Jones, a negro hailing from Ma-con, Ga., made an unsuccessful criminal escaped.

assault on Mrs. John Haggard and Miss Hedgroth, who live near Rockwood, Tenn., a few nights ago. He was afterward caught by an angry mob and lynched. The recent disappearance of Colonel J. been given additional interest by the disclosures of his wife. She says that three o'clock in the afternoon, and was not land where he was not known. He brought under control until ten in the reached home one night from a neighborevening. Twenty-five stores and shops, ing town, and handed his wife the deed two hotels, several residences and four newspaper offices were burned, and the town is now without a newspaper. Two > are married to the wealthiest men in the Top cotton is yielding well. in the United States, is dead. His name man works the better he likes it, and a heavens to the earth, but it bears no fruit, was Captain John Spence, of Accomac man in this audience who has been forty while some dwarf pear tree has more County, and he was one hundred and welve years of age. He was born in 1776, ment better than when he first entered and had voted in every presidential elec- it. The grandest honor that can ever be tion since his twenty-fourth birthday. The steamer Maud M. Fish sank at to you on the last day: "Weil done, entirely of paper. David Robarts, aged sixty-four years, has been sent to prison from Louisville,

Ky., for twenty-two years for the murder of James Kemiall in 1861. He escaped to Missouri and was first arrested last win -Miss Mattie Woolsey, daughter of Rev. The water then poured into the W. B. Woolsey, and Henry Love, her The official returns for the State of mine, flooding it in a short time. nephew, were drowned in the Nolachucky since, while returning from school in General Harrison has been tendered a special train to be pulled by the largest becomptive in the country, if he will visit the Augusta (Ga.) Exposition.

But the Record of Heaven Will Require of Every One According to the Talents Intrusted to Their Earthly Keeping.

Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, in a recent sermon at the Brooklyn Tabernacle, took up the parable of the ten talents as his stantly killing Oliver Welder and serioussubject, his text being: ly injuring Cunningham. The mill was Unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to snother one; to every man according to his several ability.—Matthew, xxv., 15. Many of the parables of Jesus Christ were more graphic in the times in which He lived than they are now, because circumstances have so much changed. In olden times, when a man wanted to wreak a grudge upon his neighbor, after the farmer had scattered the seed wheat over the field and was expecting the harvest, the avenger would go across the same field with a sack full of the seed of darnel the wheat. In this land our farms are driven to the mountains, and we can not coolie as to the Emperor. Whether it is have one or whether we shall have ten. made out of bone, or brass, or iron, or copper, or gold, or silver, it speaks all languages without a stammer. The parable of the text runs in this wise: The He means an loak, and when He plants a owner of a large estate was about to leave home, and he had some money that intends it to be growthful and enlarge he wished properly invested, and so he "I am going away now, and I wish each child, lay aside a certain amount of you would take this money and put it to money, investing it, expecting by acthe very best possible use, and when I comulation and by compound interest, come back return to me the interest. To that by the time the child shall come to one man he gave nine thousand four hun- mid life, this small amount of money will wagon, a few evenings since, and broke dred dollars; to others he gave lesser be a fortune, showing how a small sums of money; to the least he gave eighteen hundred dollars. He left home and was gone for years, and then returned. On his arrival he was anxious to of His spiritual children at his centric citizen of Hopkinsville, Ky., died know about his worldly affairs, and he birth, and it is to go on, and as glory, and they who toil mightly for called his servants together to report to by the servants together to report to be servants to the servants together to report to the servants to the serva him. "Let me know," said he, "what you have been doing with my property since | Can it be possible that you have been ac-I have been gone. The man who had received the nine thousand four hundred twenty, thirty years, and that you do not dollars came up and said: "I invested love Him more than you ever did before? that money. I got good interest for it. I Can it be that you have been cultured in cheer you up at the thought that there have in other ways rightly employed it, the Lord's vineyard, and that Christ finds and here are eighteen thousand eight on you nothing but sour grapes? You hundred dollars. You see I have doubled may depend upon it, if you do not use the what you gave me." "That's very good," talent that God gave you it will dwindle, said the owner of the estate; "that's The rill that breaks from the hillside will grandly done. I admire your faithfulness and industry. I shall reward brightest day started in the dim twilight. you. Well done-well done." Other The strongest Christian man was once a servants came up with smaller accumulations. After awhile I see a man dragging himself along, with his head hanging. I know from the way be comes in grace of God was intended to be very acthat he is a lazy fellow. He comes up to cumulative. the owner of the estate and says: "Here are those eighteen hundred and eighty dollars." "What!" says the owner of the property, "haven't you made it accumulate any thing?" "Nothing-nothing." "Why, what have you been about all hese years?" "Oh, I was afraid that if I nvested it I might somehow lose it, There are your eighteen hundred and eighty dollars." Many a man started out with only a crown in his pocket, and achieved a fortune; but this fellow of my text, with you didn't give me enough." eighteen hundred and eighty dollars, has gained not one farthing. Instead of confessing his indolence, he goes to work to berate his master, for indolence is most always impudent and impertment. Of course he looses his place and is discharged from the service. The owner who went out into a far country is Jesus Carist going from earth to Heaven. The servants spoken of in the text are members of the church. The talents are our different qualifications of usefulness, given in different proportions to different people. The coming back of the owner is the Lord Jesus returning at the judgment to make final settlement. The raising of some of hese men to be rulers over five or two cities is the exaltation of the righteous at the last day, while the casting out of the idler is the expulsion of all those who have misimproved their privileges. Learn first from this subject, that beto service. If you have any romantic that one passage of Scripture you may men who are not members of their own idea about becoming a Christian, I want harvest a thousand souls for God. I am families. now to scatter the romance. If you en-glad that the chief work of the church in ter into the kingdom of God, it will be this day is being done by the men of talgoing into plain, practical, honest, con- ent. Once in awhile, when a great tinuous, persistent Christian work. I fortress is to be taken, God will bring know there are a great many people who out a great field-piece and rake all with have fantastic and remantic notions the flery hail of destruction. But comabout this Christian life, but he who serves God with all the energies of body.

In the nery half of destruction. The hard fight their homes late at night, as a visitor energy of with all the energies of body.

In the nery half of destruction and the hard fight their homes late at night, as a visitor energy of the serves o he who does not is an unworthy servant. to drive down the walls of cities, and, When the war trumpet sounds, all the under wrathful strokes, to make nations Lord's soldiers must march, however fly like sparks from the anvil. It only good or bad boarder according to his perdeep the snow may be, or how fearful the took one Luther for Germany, one odds against them. Under our govern- Zwinglins for Switzerland, one John ment we may have Colonels, and Captains, Knox for Scotland, one Calvin for France, nd Generals in time of peace, but in the and one John Wesley for England. Dor-F. Hill, from Morgan County, Ga., has Courch of God there is no peace until the cas as certainly has a mission to last great victory shall have been achiev- serve as Paul has a mission to ed. But I have to tell you that it is preach. The two mites dropped by Worcester County on the eastern shore of Chesapeake Bay, was destroyed by fire Chesapeake Bay, was destroyed chesapeake Bay, was destroyed by his vision in which is was continued in the last night. The fire originated at four up his property and go into a distant were dragged from Africa. A endowment of a college, which gets a state Roman invaders profuned the young man goes to an artisan, and says: man's name into the newspapers. The "Sir, I want to learn your trade. I, by man who kindled the first fire under the children, all daughters, three of whom There is no drudgery in it. In our worldyears serving God, enjoys the employbestowed upon you is to have Christ say | lected. Sould's landing, twenty miles below New good and faithful servent."

ent qualifications are given to different | he immediately called all the servants people. The teacher lifts a blackboard, about him and said: "Here is the little and he draws a diagram, in order that by account I have been keeping. I want to brothers who are comparative strangura points to organize delegations in the variof the pupil with the truth that he has pare them, and I'll pay you what I owe no fraternity between them. And it is been uttering. And all the truths of this you and you'll pay me what you own me. one of the most uncomfortable experiences There is a house at Atlanta, Ga., built | Dible are drawn out in the natural world | Let us have a settlement." The day will of life to live with strangers in the same as in a great diagram. Here is a come when the Lord Jesus Christ will ap- household, to mingle with aliens among plece of ground that has ten tal- pear, and will say to you: "What have your own kin. It is every one's duty to ents. Under a little culture, it you been doing with my property? What become a member of his own family, yields twenty bushels of wheat to have you been doing with my faculties? Tanker Blade.

The acre. Here is another piece of What have you been doing with what? ground that has only one tolent. You gave you for accomplative purposes?" may plow it, and harrow it, and culture There will be no escape from that settle-it, year after year, but it yields a mere ment. Sometimes you can not got a setpittance. So here is a man with ten tal- (dement with a man, e-pe rally if he owes ents in the way of getting good you. He postpries in i prograsinates, and doing good. He soon, under Christian culture, yields great harvests of faith and good work. Here is does not want to settle. But when the worthly is one of the harvests of the control of talent, and you may put upon him the there will be no escape. We will have to praiseworthy .- S. S. Tittes createst spiritual culture, but he yields face all the bills. I have some times been but little of the fruits of righteousness, amazed to see how an accountal will run. Mucu wisdom often goes with fewest You are to understand that there are dif- | up or down a long line of figure ferent qualifications for different in- | It I see ten or fifteen figures in a line ous comparison when a man says: "Oh, if I only had that man's faith, or that ferent each time. But I have admired ploy it in the right way. stone and timper were brought to Jeru- count presented. God has kept a long salem for the temple every stone and line of sins, a long line of broken Sabplece of timber was marked, so baths, a long line of profame words, a that before they started for Jeru- long line of discarded sacraments, a salem the architects knew in what place long line of misimproved privileges. that particular piece of timber or stone They will all be added up, and before should fit. And so I have to tell you we | angels, and devils, and men, the aggreare all marked for some one place in the gate will be announced. Oh, that will be great temple of the Lord, and do not let | the great day of settlement. I have us complain, saying: "I would like to be to ask the question: "Am I ready for the foundation stone or the cap stone." It!" It is of more importance to me to Let us go into the very place where God | answer that question in regard to myintends us to be, and be satisfied with the | self than in regard to you, and it is of position. Your talent may be in personal appearance; your talent may be in large orldly estate; your talent may be in high social position; your talent may be in a swift pen or eloquent tongue; but whatever be the talent it has been given only for one purpose-practical use. You sometimes find a man in the community of whom you say: "He has no grass, scattering that seed all over the talent at all;" and yet that man may field, and, of course, it would sprout up have a hundred talents. His one hunand spoil the whole crop, and it was to that Christ referred in the parable when endurance. Poverty comes and he en-He spoke of the tares being sown among dures it; persecution comes and he endures it; sickness comes and he endures fenced off and the wolves have been it. Before men and angels he is a specimen of Christian patience, and he is fully understand the meaning of the parable in regard to the shepherd and the lost sheep. But the parable of which I speak is founded on something we all many more positively active. If you have understand, it is built on money, and one talent, use that; if you have ten talthat means the same in Jerusalem as in ents use them, satisfied with the fact that New York. It means the same to the we all have different qualifications, and serf as to the Czar, and to the Chinese that the Lord decides whether we shall the professed Christian man who has > small amount of grace in the heart, He until it overshadows the whole nature. There are parents who, at the birth of util it shall become an eternal fortune. quainted with the Lord Jesus for ten, either widen into a river or dry up. weak Christian. Take the one talent and make it two; take five and make them ten; take ten and make them twenty. The

> Again, I learn from the text that ineriority of gifts is no excuse for indolence. This man, with the smallest amount of money, came growling into the presonce of the owner of the estate, as much as to say: "If you had given me $9,400 I would have brought $18,800 as well as this other man. You only gave me $1,880, and I hardly thought it was worth while to use it at all. So I hid it in a napkin, and it produced no result. It's because

But inferiority of faculties is no excuse for indolence. Let me say to the man cities." In anticipation of that land I do who has the least qualifications, by the not wonder that Augustus Toplady, the grace of God he may be made almost omnipotent. The merchant, whose car- his last moment: "I have nothing more goes come out from every island of the sea, and who, by one stroke of the pen, thing. Surely no man can live on earth can change the whole face of American after the glories I have witnessed." Oh, commerce, has not so much power as you may have before God, in earnest, faithful and continuous prayer. You say you have no faculty. Do you not understand | the tired dove in the time of the Deluge that you might this afternoon go into when it found its way safely into the winyour place of prayer and kneel before dow of the ark. Jod, and bring down upon your soul, and the souls of others, a blessing so vast that it would take eternal ages to compute it? "Oh," you say, "I haven't fleetness of speech. I can't talk well. I can't utter what I want to say. My brother, can you not quote one passage of Scripture? Then take that one passage of Script-Learn first from this subject, that be-coming a Christian is merely going out it under all proper circumstances. With novel social comfort. There are too many

this indenture, yield myself to your care | burnt offering in the ancient temple had Just so, if we come into the kingdom of hovah's presence. Yes, the men with one great name, and work for their own agly callings sometimes our nerves get grandizement, and do nothing for the worn out, and our head aches, and our alleviation of the world's wees. The cedar physical faculties break down, but in this of Lebanon, standing on the mountain, The oldest man in Virginia, and perhaps service of the Lord Jasus, the harder a seems to hand down the storms out of the fruit on its branches than it can carry. Better to have one talent and put it to full use than five hundred wickedly neg-

My subject teaches me that there is gong to come a day of solemn settlement | ever sing with John Keats-Orleans. She was valued at $10,000. Mate Learn also from this parable that differ. When the old farmer of the text got home other man who seem ; to have only one, great day comes of which I am speaking worthly is one of the best ways of being dividuals. There is a great deal of ruin- and I attempt to add them up, and I add them two or three times, I make them difthe way an accountant will take a long man's money, or that man's eloquence, the way an accountant will take a long how I would serve God." Better take the line of figures, and without a single misaculty that God has given you and em- take, and with great celerity, announce the aggregate. Now, in the last great The rabbis used to say that before the settlement, there will be a correct acmore importance for you to answer it in regard to yourself than in regard to me, Every man for himself in that day. Every woman for herself in that day. "If you be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself; if thou scornest, thou alone shall bear it." We are apt to speak of the last day as an occasion of vociferation-a great demonstration of power and pomp; but there will be on that day, I think, a few moments of entire silence; I think a tremendous, an overwholming silence; I think it will be such a silence as the > text that our degrees of happiness in Heaven will be graduated according to our degrees of usefulness on earth. Neveral of the commentators agree in making this parable the same one as in Luke, where one man was made ruler over two cities. Would it be fair and right that lived very near the line between the world and the church-the man who has often compromised his Christian character-the man who has never spoken out for God-the man who has never been known as a Christian only on communion daysthe man whose great struggle has been to see how much of the world he could get and yet win Heaven-Is it right to suppose that that man will have as grand and glorious a seat in Heaven as the man who gave all his energies of body, mind and soul to the service of God? The dying thief entered Heaven, but not with the same startling acclaim as that which greeted Paul, who had gone under scorchings, and across dungeons, and through maltreatments into the kingdom of glory. reward than those who have rendered earth never heard. It will be at the moment when all nations are listening

I learn also from this parable of the

for their doom.

only half a service. Some of you are bastening on toward the reward of the righteens. I want to will be some kind of reward waiting for you. There are Christian people in this house who are very near Heaven. This week some of you may pass out into the light of the unsetting sun. I saw a blind man going along the road with his staff, and he kept pounding the earth and then stamping with his foot. I said to him: "What do you do that for?" "Oh," he said, "I can tell by the sound of the ground when I am near a dwelling." And some of you can tell by the sound of your earthly pathway that you are coming near your Father's house. I congratulate you. Oh, weather-beaten voyagers, the storms are driving you into the harbor. Just as when you were looking for a friend, and came up to the gate of the house, and you were talking with the servant, when your friend hoisted the window and shouted: "Come in! come iu!" Just so, when you come to the gate of the future world, and you are talking with Death, the black porter at the gate, methinks Christ will hoist the window and say: "Come in! come in! I will make thee ruler over ten author of "Rock of Ages," declared in to pray for; God has given me every my brothers and sisters, how sweet it will be, after the long wilderness march, to

NEGLECTED DUTIES.

Are You, Busy Reader, a Member of Your Own Family? There are some men who need an introduction to their own children. There are some husbands who would find an acquaintance with their own wives a most

There are many men of affairs who are practically divorced from their wives and married to their business. There is no music to them in the domestic hum of tha tea-kettle or the purr of the tabby cat on her mat behind the stove. They enter between himself and the inmates of the house upon which he pays taxes. He is a sonal characteristics, but is never a member of the family. Even if a man does escape from the outward scenes of his business at night, like evil, it is ever present with him. A modification of Dante's lurid inscription should be placed over the gateway of every bome temple at Jerusalem. A business man should no more bring his business into his home than a farmer should bring his oxen into his kitchen, or a sailer should ancher his ship in his front yard. Leave the barn behind you when you enter the house. He parlor is big enough to hold a shop, no sitting-room is wide enough to contain a store. By an inalienable, unwritten law as old as the Magna Charta, a man's home is regarded as his castle. He should defend it against business cares and business oughts, as he would defend it against burglars. When the shop or the countingroom besiege your home, pull up your draw bridge and plant your banners on the outward wall. But men are not the only strangers to their own families. There are some women who make a daily escape from home, as eagerly as a convict scales his prison walls. Home is stupld, the outside world is gay and interesting. Such women

"Ever let the fancy roam-Pleasure pever is at home. It is a quite common thing to find

Own man is sometimes afraid to praise another, lest by exulting the accomplishpreciate his own But, in truth, it is

Words, - Suphecies